Mortar Board is Hiring!

Mortar Board is looking to fill two staff positions in the National Office! We're looking for a Columbus-based Administrative Coordinator (part-time, 25-30 hours/week) and a full-time Marketing and Communications Manager (hybrid, with the opportunity of fully remote based on the candidate). For best consideration for both positions, apply by Sunday, September 29.

The Administrative Coordinator will provide essential administrative support to the National Office and Society Leadership, including managing phone and email communications, helping to coordinate events, conducting data entry and generating reports, maintaining accurate records, and assisting with special projects and initiatives to advance the organization's goals.

The Marketing and Communications Manager will proactively lead the branding, outreach, and communication needs of Mortar Board National College Honor Society. This role will oversee the development and execution of marketing strategies, enhance engagement with members, alumni, and partners, and strengthen the Society's visibility and impact across all platforms.
